Hello there!

I hope this letter finds you well. My qualities and passions in Full Stack Web Development make me a qualified candidate for this role and a potential key component to your team.

Throughout my 8 years in luxury hospitality, I am grateful to have accrued a wide range of experiences varying from customer relations, employee relations, operation management to sales. With my recent position eliminated, I have committed myself to attending George Washington University Coding Bootcamp to gain a different set of skills, which will allow me to combine my management expertise with Full-Stack Web Development.

Here are some of the skills and highlights I can bring to your company:

- Designed and developed Full-Stack mobile responsive web applications with implemented Database programing, while using jQuery, JavaScript, HTML 5, CSS/BootStrap, Mongo, and MySQL
- Excellent team player with high-level initiative
- Ability to multitask in demanding work environments
- Expert in both client-facing and team management roles

As a Full Stack Web Developer with an interest in team building and customer service management, I know that I have the ability to apply the previously stated strengths, and much more, to your team as your newest member. Kindly review my enclosed resume for a more in-depth illustration of my work history and accomplishments. I look forward to elaborating on how my different set of skills and abilities will benefit your company.

Thank you for your consideration, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

With Warmest Regards,

Young Ji
